第 三 問 次の英文は、新聞の相談コーナーへ寄せられた高校生のキャシー (Cathy) からの質問と、相談員トム (Tom) による回答です。この英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Dear Tom,

Hello. I'm Cathy, a 17-year-old high school student. I have a problem. I can't sleep well at night. ①(don't / should / what / I / I / know / do). It is hard for me to fall asleep after I get into bed, so I often look at my smartphone in bed. I only get four hours of sleep every night. Do you have any ideas?

Cathy

Dear Cathy,

Thank you for telling me about your problem. Four hours' sleep is too little for a student. You don't know why you can't sleep well enough. I think it's the biggest problem. So, let's think about it together. There are four points I would like to tell you.

First, it is important to try to go to bed and wake up at the same time every day. For example, if you wake up at 6:30 a.m. and go to bed at 10:30 p.m. on weekdays, you should do the same on weekends. Exposing yourself to sunlight just after you wake up is good for you. By doing that, you will get sleepy at night. Even if you can't fall asleep right away, just lie on the bed every night. If you do that, you will be able to sleep early someday.

Second, you should control the temperature of your bedroom. If it is too hot in your bedroom, it will be difficult to sleep ②there. We feel a little cool when our bedroom temperature is around 25°C. Your body temperature is important too. We feel sleepy when our body temperature goes down. You should take a bath and raise your body temperature ninety minutes before you sleep. After that, it will gradually go down, and you will feel sleepy when you go to bed.

Third, you should turn off the lights in your bedroom when you sleep. And you should not use your smartphone two hours before you sleep. If you look at e-mails from your friends or play video games on your smartphone in bed, your brain will wake up. Do you usually sleep alone? If you (③共有する) a bedroom with your brother or sister and can't turn off the lights in your bedroom, it is helpful to use an eye mask.

The final point is to calm down. We usually need some time to feel sleepy. Twenty minutes before going to bed, you should do something relaxing. Some people like reading books or listening to music. Find the best way for you.

Sleeping is important for us. Please try some of these points. I hope they will help you (④) well, Cathy!

Tom

〈注〉 fall asleep 眠りにつく expose さらす sunlight 日光 lie 横たわる
temperature 温度 brain 脳 eye mask アイマスク calm down 気分が落ち着く

問1 下線部①の () 内の語を正しく並べかえ、英文を完成させなさい。

問2 下線部②が指すものを、本文中の英語3語で書きなさい。

問3 本文中の (③) 内の日本語を英語1語に直しなさい。

問4 本文中の (④) に入る最も適切なものを、次のア～エの中から1つ選び、記号で答えなさい。

ア sleep イ sleeping ウ slept エ at sleeping

問5 寝る前に読書をしたり音楽を聞いたりすることに対してトムが述べていることとして最も適切なものを、次のア～エの中から1つ選び、記号で答えなさい。

ア Listening to music before sleeping is not good because our brains will wake up.

イ If we read a difficult story that we can't understand, we won't get sleepy.

ウ It is important for us to listen to music while we take a bath.

エ Before you sleep, doing something relaxing is helpful for us to calm down.

問6 以下は本文の要約文である。本文の内容に合うように (1) ～ (3) に入る適切な語を、本文中の英語1語で書きなさい。

Tom tells Cathy four (1) about what to do to sleep well at night. He says going to bed and getting up at the same time every day is important. Also, our bedroom should be (2) because it is hard to sleep in a hot room. We should stop using our smartphones before we sleep and spend time in a dark room. If we have brothers or sisters, we may not be able to use our bedrooms (3). Using an eye mask when we can't turn off the lights in the room can be very helpful. It's important to relax before going to bed. Sleep is important for us, so Tom hopes that his answers will be helpful to Cathy.

第 四 問 次のアムネスティ・インターナショナル (Amnesty International) という団体に関する英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Peter Benenson was a lawyer living in London. On his way to work one day in 1960, he saw an article in the newspaper. According to the article, two Portuguese students were arrested and sent to prison for seven years for just saying, “For freedom!” in a public place.

Benenson was very shocked at this article. ① He researched this problem and learned that many people all over the world were in prison for using their right to freedom of speech. He thought he had to do something. So, ②(who / were / to / decided / people / save / he) in prison. He wrote an article and sent it to a newspaper company. In his article, he said that all people put in prison because of their political opinions should be released. He called them “prisoners of conscience.”

③ Benenson and the volunteers sent many letters to foreign governments to ask for the release of prisoners of conscience. With the help of his many volunteers, Benenson created an organization to work for human rights. He called it “Amnesty International,” or “Amnesty.” At this time, an international organization for protecting human rights was born for the first time in the world.

Amnesty’s main activities are researching human rights problems around the world and asking governments to solve them. Since Amnesty was born in 1961, it has grown from a small number of volunteers to a global organization of many supporters. Now it has more than 10 million supporters in about 200 countries. In 1970, a volunteer group was also created in Japan, but it was not as popular as those in Europe.

Today, Amnesty continues to work for human rights. There are still many people who are in prison in the world. They need Amnesty’s help. Amnesty has worked without the support of any government. To honor its great achievement, it was given the Nobel Peace Prize in 1977.

Benenson and the activities of Amnesty have been very important in protecting human rights. We should learn about the activities of Amnesty and support them. It is important for us to think that the (④) happening around the world are also ours.

〈注〉 Portuguese ポルトガル人の prison 刑務所 freedom of speech 言論の自由 political 政治的な release 解放する, 解放 prisoners of conscience 良心の囚人 global 世界的な supporter(s) 支持者 support 支援, 支援する honor たたえる
Nobel Peace Prize ノーベル平和賞

問題3

Ken: Hi, Emily. What are you reading?

Emily: Hi, Ken. I'm reading an e-mail from Maggie.

Ken: Who is Maggie?

Emily: She's a high school student living in Canada. She has been my good friend since I was six years old. In Canada, we spent every day together. Since I came to Japan three months ago, she has been writing e-mails to me often to tell me about her high school life.

Ken: Do you want to see her?

Emily: Yes, I do. Actually, I'm going to see her soon.

Ken: Really?

Emily: She will visit Japan with her family next month and stay here for a week. I'll stay in Shizuoka with them for two days because we want to see Mt. Fuji together. Have you ever been to Shizuoka?

Ken: No. But I've seen Mt. Fuji before. Last year, I went to Yamanashi with my family. Mt. Fuji can be seen from Yamanashi too. I stayed at a hotel near Mt. Fuji and was able to see it from my room.

Emily: That's great. What did you do in Yamanashi?

Ken: I rode a bike in a forest. I also enjoyed swimming and fishing in the lake. And there was a horse-riding club near the hotel, and my parents went there.

Emily: I see. You had a good time there.

Ken: What are you going to do in Shizuoka?

Emily: I haven't decided yet. I don't know what I can do there.

Ken: A travel guidebook will teach you how to spend time in Shizuoka. You can find one in the city library. When I went to Yamanashi last year, I took a guidebook with me. It was very helpful. Are you interested in reading one?

Emily: Yes, I am. But I think it is written in Japanese.

Ken: Don't worry. If you don't understand Japanese, I'll help you. Why don't we go to the city library after school?

Emily: Sounds good. I'll write an e-mail to Maggie and ask her what her family wants to do in Shizuoka.

Ken: That will be nice.

1. Question 1: How long will Emily stay with Maggie's family in Shizuoka?
